THE INSURANCE COMPLAINTS BUREAU GUIDELINES, 2017.

PART I - PRELIMINARY

1. CITATION AND COMMENCEMENT

These Guidelines may be cited as The Insurance Complaints Bureau Guidelines, 2017 and shall come into force on the 1st day of February 2017.

2. INTERPRETATION

(1) In these Guidelines, unless the context otherwise requires –

“Complaint” means a statement of dissatisfaction addressed to the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority relating to the service offered or failed to be offered as agreed; a product offered for sale or withheld from sale; or the conduct of a licensee;

“Complainant” means a person who has lodged a complaint with the Authority and includes a Prospect, Policyholder, beneficiary, injured third party etc.

“Authority” means the Insurance Regulatory Authority of Uganda.

“Licensee” means a person who holds any licence or authorisation issued under the Insurance Act Cap 213 as Amended;

(2) Terms and expressions used in these Guidelines and not defined shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Insurance Act Cap 213 as Amended.

3. PREAMBLE

Section 15 (2) (e), (f) and (h) of the Insurance Act, 2000 as amended mandates the Insurance Regulatory Authority of Uganda, inter alia, to:

- (a) safeguard the rights of insurance policyholders and insurance beneficiaries to any contract ;
- (b) receive complaints from the public on the conduct of a licensed person, arbitrate and grant restitution to the complainant as may be possible; and
- (c) promote a sound and efficient insurance market in the country.

Whilst members of the Public have been lodging complaints with the Authority Complaints Bureau; the complaints analyzed and feedback from licensees sought in order to resolve the complaint, the information gathered has also been used to identify service, process, and information challenges and the recurrent issues that need to be addressed.

Where appropriate analysis of feedback and complaint information is used to rectify the issues raised in complaints about / against a licensed player; claims have also been settled resulting in improved consumer confidence in insurance in Uganda.

4. OBJECTIVE OF THE GUIDELINE

The objective of these guidelines is to provide for an effective complaint handling system to the Authority which;

- (a) resolves issues raised by members of the public against an insurance player in a timely and cost effective way;
- (b) may provide information that may lead to improvements in insurance service delivery; and
- (c) improve the reputation of the Authority and strengthen the public confidence in insurance.

The guidelines have been issued by the Insurance Regulatory Authority of Uganda generally for giving effect to Section 15 (2) (e), (f) and (h) of the Insurance Act, 2000 as amended and for providing for the minimum criteria for handling of complaints.

5. SCOPE OF THE GUIDELINES

These guidelines shall apply to every licensee or person regulated by the authority and members of the public with any insurance related complaints / problem.
